

Welcome to Queen Elizabeth II Platinum Jubilee Park

There are 38.5 acres of open space to explore with cycleways and footpaths. This open space provides a range of wildlife habitats, including native trees, scrub areas and a wild flower and wet grassland. A special area has been allocated for visitors to exercise their dogs. You can find litter and dog waste bins at the entrances to the Park. Please help us to keep The Queen Elizabeth II Platinum Jubilee Park tidy.

Artwork by powellwildlifeart.com